Ethnicity, Race, and the Bible
Part III
Agenda

✓ Black presence in the Bible
✓ Doctrine of Election in OT
✓ Depictions of Africa in the Bible
✓ Problem with Paul
✓ Passages typically assumed to deal with race
Slave Owners & The Bible

- Passages in favor of slaveholders
- Taught that Blacks had no heritage in the Word
- Blacks were not human and were inherently inferior
- God foreordained Blacks to servitude
- Slavery was not a violation of God’s law
1. There are profound differences in the concept and attitude of race in the Bible versus Eurocentric interpretation.

2. Biblical authors were color conscious but not as a basis of enslavement, oppression, or demeaning identity.
De-Africanization of the Bible
De-Africanization of the Bible

- Denial of the presence of African nations and peoples in scripture

- Removal of Egypt from Africa and placement in the Western world
Prominent African Nations

Egypt

Cush / Ethiopia

Sheba

Ophir
Israel always held African nations and people in the highest regard

Challenges with African Presence in the Bible

• Traditional view v. Textual evidence

• What constitutes/defines black in antiquity?

• Significance of color v. nationality in the Bible
The Curse of Ham

✓ Genesis 9:18-29 – the curse
“Our Rabbis taught: Three copulated in the ark, and they were all punished – the dog, the raven, and Ham. The dog was doomed to be tied, the raven expectorates his seed into his mate’s mouth, and Ham was smitten in his skin.”
“Moreover because you twisted your head around to see my nakedness, your grandchildren’s hair shall be twisted into kinks, and their eyes red; again, because your lips jested at my misfortune, their shall swell; and because you neglected my nakedness, they shall go naked, and their male members shall be shamefully elongated. Men of this race are called Negroes.”
The Curse of Ham

- Genesis 9:18-29 – the curse
- Genesis 10:6-20; I Chronicles 1:8-16 – the lineage
- 1865 Florida Law 1/8; Homer Plessey 1892; One drop law
The Curse of Cain

✅ Genesis 4:1-16

“The smoke from his sacrifice blew back upon his face, blackening him.”

“The Lord beat Cain’s face with hail, which blackened like coal, and thus he remained with a black face.”
The Curse of Cain

• Cain’s “blackness” is interpreted as either a mark or a curse placed upon him
• Cain’s wife was believed to be from a people not descendant of Adam – Negroes
• Ham was said to marry a daughter of Cain so Negro blood survived the flood
• Prominent n Euro-American theology but became doctrine in Mormonism
Wherever you see “Ham/Canaan/Cain” or their descendants there the black presence in the Bible is to be found
Terms indicative of “color” in the Bible (Hebrew)

✓ Sahor (Song of Solomon 1:5-6) - black, swarthy, tawny, very dark
✓ Ham ~ hum: darkened, dark brown, black (only used for the color of sheep)
✓ Qedar – dark skinned, Gen 25:13 = Son of Ishmael
✓ Pinehas ~ Pa-Nehsi = Nubian: Son of Eli and grandson of Aaron which ties him to Moses
