

Alfred Street Baptist Church (ASBC) welcomes Deacon Lolita Youmans as our new Church Administrator, effective June 4, 2019.

Deacon Youmans, who has been a member of ASBC since 2006, has volunteered in several ministries within the church. Moreover, she has a wealth of experience in both the legal and human resources fields. In the legal field, she has served as trial attorney (Personnel and Labor Relations and Child Support Enforcement), DC Office of the Attorney General; branch supervisor, Domestic Violence Unit, DC Superior Court; director of legal services for Washington Empowered Against Violence. For 17 years, she served in various human resources positions, including senior management positions for BP (Oil and Gas) in Houston, TX.

Deacon Lolita Youmans holds a J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center, a master of human resources from the University of South Carolina Graduate School of Business, and a bachelor's degree in elementary education from the University of South Carolina. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Deacon Lolita Youmans is married to Deacon Kevin Youmans and they are the proud parents of three beautiful young adult daughters: Jordan, Devon and Morgan.

As church administrator, under the direction of the Pastor, Deacon Lolita Youmans will oversee the day-to-day operations and all of the business office departments of ASBC while serving as liaison to the Church Council.

Additionally, we would like to thank both Dr. Elaine Crider (past Church Administrator) and Deacon Lawrence Clark (Interim Church Administrator) for their dedication and service to Alfred Street Baptist Church.

Please join us as we welcome Deacon Lolita Youmans in her new role of Church Administrator at Alfred Street Baptist Church.
